

DIRECTOR NOMINEE (Ministry Corporation)

NAME: Samuel (Dhanaraj) Senathipathy

Coming to faith...

During university, I struggled to pass one of my courses after several attempts. My father encouraged me to “taste and see (that the Lord is good – Psalm 34:8)” – to pray, and hand my struggles over to Him. This shift in priorities took root and changed my life. Since then, my faith in the Lord has grown and I continue to grow in Him to this day.

Christian service and leadership...

Christian service, modeled after Jesus Christ, emphasizes selflessly ministering to others with humility and love. It's viewed as an act of worship, expressing love for God by serving the marginalized. Each believer is gifted for service within the church, using talents to meet needs and advance God's kingdom. Leaders lead by serving, casting vision aligned with God's mission and empowering others for ministry.

Family...

I have been married to my wife, Sophia, for the past 30 years and we have two children.

What excites me about The Met's mission...

Our mission emphasizes glorifying God by making disciples of Jesus Christ. This involves engaging people with the gospel, emphasizing salvation through Jesus, and establishing believers by providing encouragement and motivation. Additionally, we aim to equip servants with an understanding of Christian beliefs, Scripture, and effective communication of the gospel.

Other relevant experience in preparation for this role...

I have been serving at The Met as a Sunday Service Greater, in METYA as a group mentor, and a Community Group Leader in Kanata. All three have allowed me to engage, establish, and equip people in our church and city.
