Winter 2025

1 and 2 Timothy and Titus, sometimes known as the Pastoral Epistles, are letters written by Paul to two pastors who were working with him in the early days of the church. In these letters, Paul encourages Christians to hold on to the true gospel, which is the firm foundation of the church that God is building. Paul is convinced that believing the good news of grace will result in real, noticeable life change and he calls everyone who is part of God's family to live in a way that displays God's truth to each other and to the world. As we live in a culture where truth is considered relative and lifestyles are increasingly about individual choice, these letters will refresh us with the stability of ultimate truth and call us to lifestyles which are saturated in hope, bring glory to God, and which reveal the beauty of the gospel for everyone to see.

Join us this winter from Jan 15 - May 21 at 9:30-11:15am or 7:00-8:45pm at the Met.
